ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE (Full Copy Policies are available on request.)

130a Increased Construction Excess

The amount for which the INSURED shall be responsible for DAMAGE caused by or arising from STORM OR FLOOD peril in respect of any portion of the insured BUILDINGS constructed of bitumised mineral felt is increased to £500 after the application of AVERAGE.

906 Flat Roof Condition

It is a condition precedent to liability that all flat roof sections be inspected and tested at least once every two year period by a qualified independent building/roofing contractor and a certificate issued confirming the roof section is in sound weather proof condition.

907 Index-Linking Clause

The sums insured in section one (buildings) and section two (contents) will be indexed each month in line with the following:

Section one (buildings): The House Rebuilding Cost Index issued by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors.

Section two (contents): The Consumer Durables Section of the General Index of Retail Prices or a similar index selected by us.

We will not charge you an extra premium for any monthly increase, but at each renewal we will calculate the premium using the new sums insured.

For your protection, should the index fall below zero we will not reduce the sum insured.

908 Your Bank or Building Societies Interest Clause

The rights of your bank or building society who provided your mortgage will not be affected by anything you do to increase the risk of loss or damage to the home provided that they were unaware of such action. The bank or building society must write and tell us as soon as they become aware of any action you have taken to increase the risk of loss or damage. They may also have to pay an extra premium which you will have to repay them.

Statement of Fact Condition

It is a condition precedent to liability that the statement of fact is agreed entirely, unless agreed otherwise in writing by us. A signed copy must be provided to us within 14 (fourteen) days of policy inception.
